

Media Contact: Andy C. Baker
610-942-4200
sales@amsfilling.com

AMS Filling Systems and Hillside Custom Machining: An Alliance of True Synergistic Capabilities

For Immediate Release

(Honey Brook, PA) June 15, 2009 – AMS Filling Systems, Inc announced today that it is in the process of merging with Hillside Custom Machining, LLC. Both Operations will soon work together at the current AMS facility located at 2500 Chestnut Tree Road in Honey Brook, PA. The alliance joins two companies whose reputations have been built on innovation, customer service and quality products.

Hillside Custom Machining (www.hillsidecustom.com) is a provider of food packaging equipment and a full service machine shop. Hillside provides unlimited capital and premier machine shop to support AMS and allowing the company to solidify AMS' commitment to providing it's customers with continued excellent service and quality filling systems.

AMS Filling Systems (www.amsfilling.com) is an Industry Leader in Auger Filling Equipment has been serving it's Customers in the Food, Pharmaceutical, Cosmetic and Chemical Industries since 1986.

“We are extremely excited about the future, the synergy offered by bringing together the two companies enables us to aggressively plan for considerable growth in the market place,” commented Andy C. Baker, Vice President of AMS Filling Systems.

###

Photos, interviews, and actualities are available upon request.